Hello!

We understand that if you are reading through this guide, it may be a little overwhelming to figure out what your next steps are.

We would like to invite you to visit us and speak to one of Beyond Emancipation's Specialists!

Under one roof there are multiple agencies that provide a range of services to help you navigate through your transition to adulthood (in the back of this guide there is a description of all of the different agencies).

You are not alone! Come see how the ILSP Hegenberger partners can help you!

Disclaimer and Credit

This guide book is not a comprehensive guide to all the service providers in and around Alameda County. The guide presents organizations that Beyond Emancipation (B:E) has worked with or researched. Please note that the guide is constantly being updated and you can contact B:E to request the most recent version. You can also find the guide in PDF format online at:

If you feel as though an organization has been left out or that information is inaccurate or outdated, please contact us with your corrections and suggestions (info@beyondemancipation.org).

Thanks to our staff for researching, compiling and updating this guide. Thanks also to Casey Family Programs for their encouragement to develop the guide for broader circulation and financial support for its printing. Most of all, thanks to all transition age youth for their courage and determination, as they face the challenges of adulthood and work to fulfill their dreams.
